Salute to America

with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra

Welcome to The Henry Ford, and thank you for celebrating your Fourth of July with us. The Henry Ford and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra began this partnership 26 years ago. It's a partnership we're thrilled to be able to offer to the community. Whether this is your first time experiencing Salute to America or you're a longtime fan, we invite you to sit back and enjoy the show.

Chelsea Tipton II, Conductor

Chelsea Tipton II, a sought-after American conductor, has appeared with numerous major orchestras and has won over audiences and critics alike with his vibrant musicality, accessibility, versatility and commitment to arts education. Tipton works as the principal pops conductor of the New Haven Symphony Orchestra and celebrates his ninth season as music director of the Symphony of Southeast Texas in Beaumont. Tipton earned a Master of Music degree in orchestral conducting from Northern Illinois University and a Bachelor of Music in clarinet performance from the Eastman School of Music, with additional studies at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music.

Colonel Jim R. Keene, Commander & Conductor

Col. Jim R. Keene became commander of The United States Army Field Band in January 2015. He previously served as commander of the United States Military Academy Band at West Point, New York; commandant of the Army School of Music at Norfolk, Virginia; and with The United States Army Band "Pershing's Own" in Washington, D.C., the U.S. Army Europe Band and Chorus in Heidelberg, Germany, and the Army Ground Forces Band in Atlanta, Georgia.

The United States Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus

The United States Army Field Band has thrilled audiences for more than six decades. As the premier touring musical representative of the U.S. Army, this internationally acclaimed organization travels thousands of miles each year presenting a variety of music to enthusiastic audiences throughout the nation and abroad.

Activities of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra are made possible in part with the support of the National Endowment for the Arts, the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs and the City of Detroit. Detroit Symphony Orchestra is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity institution.

We are so pleased that you joined us to celebrate Salute to America, full of high notes, music, food and fireworks! Nowhere in America can you find a Fourth of July event quite so spectacular. Red, white and blue-festooned buildings, the acclaimed Detroit Symphony Orchestra, classic summer tastes, fifes and drums, and fireflies are the backdrop for the most robust expression of the great American experiment.
