

Civil War

Remembrance Weekend

What is freedom? What is liberty?
What is the role of government?

Questions like these split our young country in the 1860s and remain deeply relevant today. Civil War America is remembered for the scorched-earth division between North and South and the uncompromising differences that drew 3 million to the battlefield and an estimated 750,000 to their graves — the equivalent of 7.5 million today. Though shaped by battle and loss, the story of this pivotal era is best told by examining how Americans lived as they faced events that would set the stage for today's ongoing civil rights movement.

Spend Memorial Day weekend immersed in living history as soldiers, civilians, musicians and expert historians provide demonstrations, exhibits and special commemorations. From the battlefield to the parlor, the heroism and tragedy of the era are brought to life throughout Greenfield Village. Join us in honoring the sacrifices and achievements of all those who bravely fought and continue to fight in defense of the American spirit.

As you enjoy your visit today, we ask you to join us in honoring the sacrifices and achievements of all those who have bravely fought and continue to fight in defense of our great nation.
