

Sensory-Friendly Hallowe'en in Greenfield Village

Social Narrative

I can't wait for Sunday, October 15! I get to go to Hallowwe'en in Greenfield Village!

I can wear my Halloween costume if I would like to or I don't have to if I don't want to. I will need to leave any kind of sword, broom, weapon, or other sharp object at home for tonight.

We go over the rules for visiting Greenfield Village one more time when we get there:

1. Stay with my adult at ALL times.

2. Walk only. No running.

3. No touching anything without my adult's permission.

4. No climbing on anything unless my adult says it is ok.

If I get lost, I can go to a Greenfield Village worker and ask for help. To find a Greenfield Village worker, I look for someone who is handing out treats or selling something or wearing a police officer uniform.

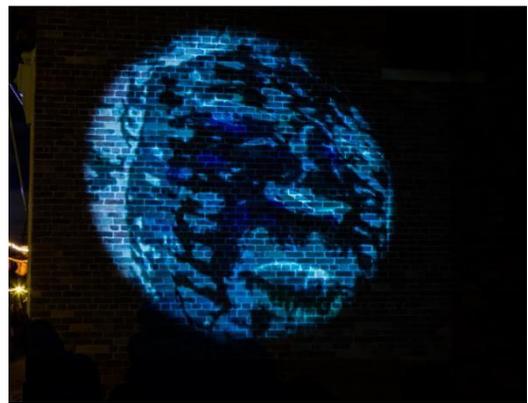

There will be lots of people in Greenfield Village. They may stand close to me. I should not touch, shove, or yell at other people. If I get too bothered, I need to tell my adult that I need a break.

We will make many stops throughout Greenfield Village to get treats and watch shows. One of our first stops is to hear a group of singing vampires, the Transylvania Trio.

Just like in The Wizard of Oz, we will go to Oz. Here, we will find our first treat stops with characters from The Wizard of Oz. There's even a face on a wall that looks and sounds like the Wizard of Oz.

We will stop for many different treats tonight. When we stop, we may have to wait in line. I will be patient, not touch other people, and let my adult know if I need a break.

We will walk by different characters to get our treats. I might find some of the characters to be scary. I will let my adult know if I am too scared to go near a character.

We will walk through a haunted forest. It may be dark and the ground may be uneven. I will tell my adult if I am too scared to walk through the forest. We can walk around it if we need to.

There's a quiet area in the Village Pavilion. It has bean bag chairs and Halloween activities. We can stop here if I feel like taking a break.

We will walk by Madam ZaZa to get treats. She's a fortune teller! We will also walk by a Halloween market with brooms on display.

We will soon pass a cemetery. There is fog and smoke by the cemetery.

While walking down a hill from the cemetery, I will hear the sound of singing pirates! It may be crowded here, with lots of people and noise. I will not get too close to the water.

I see another treat stop up ahead! It's a giant pumpkin. We also stop to take a look at a tree full of pumpkins.

I hear some music in the pumpkin patch.
Can that really be singing pumpkins? It is!

We will soon stop for treats by Sir Knight and next pass by a row of scarecrows. I wonder if any of the scarecrows will move.

Near the scarecrows, we can stop for a snack break or we can keep walking. If we stop, we can watch a silent movie.

We will soon come to a covered bridge. Fog, smoke, and strobe lights are inside the bridge and it is dark. If I'm too scared to walk inside, I can walk along a path outside of the bridge. I do not get too close to the water under the bridge.

I see dancing skeletons up ahead! We stand and watch them for a while.

Shortly down the road, we will come to a treat stop with the Bride of Frankenstein. We will then take a break for a story. I may hear the story of the Tell-Tale Heart, Little Red Riding Hood, or Hansel and Gretel. Or maybe I will listen to the songs of the Potion Sisters.

I see our next treat stop! It's the Mad Hatter and March Hare.

I hear lots of noise nearby. It's a group of people and Dr. Frankenstein! We stand and watch.

Our next stop is to watch the Top Hat Side Show. I can see people doing acts using fire or swords. There are lots of other people here. If I am bothered by the crowds or show, I need to tell my adult.

One more treat stop is nearby. It's the Queen of Hearts!

Our last stops of the night are to see the Grim Reaper and Headless Horseman. I see lots of other people watching. We watch too. If I am bothered by the crowds or shows, I need to tell my adult.

My visit to Hallowe'en in Greenfield Village has come to an end. I had a great time and can't wait to come back next year!
