Salute to America
with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra

Welcome to The Henry Ford, and thank you for celebrating your Fourth of July with us. The Henry Ford and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra began this partnership 25 years ago. It’s a partnership we’re thrilled to be able to offer to the community. Whether this is your first time experiencing Salute to America or you’re a longtime fan, we invite you to sit back and enjoy the show.

Michelle Merrill, Associate Conductor
Rapidly rising conductor Michelle Merrill is the associate conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, where she also carries the title of Phillip and Lauren Fisher Community Ambassador. A passionate and dynamic artist, Merrill was named one of Hour Detroit magazine’s “3 Cultural Organization Leaders to Watch” and was recently profiled by the Ford Motor Company for its website fordbetterworld.org. She is also a recipient of a 2016 Solti Foundation U.S. Career Assistance Award.

Chief Warrant Officer Daniel Wood
Chief Warrant Officer Daniel Wood joined The United States Army Field Band in December 2014 as officer-in-charge of the Jazz Ambassadors. He previously served as commander of the 10th Mountain Division Band at Fort Drum, New York, with which he deployed to Afghanistan during Operation Enduring Freedom. He also served as commander of the I Corps Band at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington. Wood holds a bachelor’s degree in music education and a master’s degree in music from New Mexico State University.

Jazz Ambassadors
The Jazz Ambassadors is the U.S. Army’s official touring big band. Formed in 1969, this 19-member ensemble has received great acclaim at home and abroad performing America’s greatest original art form, jazz. The band’s concerts are designed to entertain all types of audiences. Its diverse repertoire includes big-band swing, bebop, Latin, contemporary jazz, standards, popular tunes, Dixieland, vocals and patriotic selections, many of which are written or arranged by the members.
