OLD CAR FESTIVAL

DRIVEN BY HAGERTY

Greenfield Village®

September 12-13, Open Saturday until 9 p.m. with regular hours Sunday

Celebrate the 75th anniversary of America's longest-running antique car show.

Wander through the village to meet the owners who've passionately preserved these treasured machines. Watch drivers engage in games of skill, listen to the distinctive sounds of century-old vehicles, or sit back and enjoy expert insights while drivers motor through the Pass-in-Review parade. This weekend is your chance to become immersed in the moving stories of the early automotive era, a true automobile lover's dream, as electric-, steam- and gas-powered engines are constantly in motion around you.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.

MUSIC IN THE MARKET

Greenfield Village®

September 19-20, Showtimes at 12:30 p.m. and 1:45 p.m.

For more than 250 years, communities across America have united, building the nation brick by brick and note by note. This summer's "From Sea to Shining Sea: 250 Years of Sound" program commemorates the country's semiquincentennial by tracing the rich history of American music through the ages.

September 19: Foxtree Band

September 20: Finvarra's Wren

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.

DETROIT CENTRAL MARKET FALL HARVEST WEEKEND

Greenfield Village®

September 26-27, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

This season we recognize 250 years of American food culture's changing history during Detroit Central Market Weekends. Through foodways themes, diverse ethnic influences across our nation and highlighting local vendors, including farmers, artisans and makers, these weekends dive deep into the American experience from farm to table.

September 26-27 marks the final market weekend with a special focus on the fall harvest and apples with themed programming throughout the village.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.

NATIONAL MANUFACTURING DAY

Ford Rouge Factory Tour

October 1-2, Open to the public Thursday 11:30 a.m.-5 p.m. and Friday 9 a.m.-5 pm.

Celebrate manufacturing and the ways it impacts our lives and communities at Ford Rouge Factory Tour. Rev up your inner engineer with a tour of the legendary Dearborn Truck Plant, enhanced with special activities for National Manufacturing Day. Explore the auto industry's defining moments and see how progressive concepts are shaping what's next.

Discounted tickets available for purchase.

HALLOWE'EN IN GREENFIELD VILLAGE

PRESENTED BY meijer

Greenfield Village®

October 1-4, 8-11, 15-18, 22-25

Step into a world of enchantment and imagination at Michigan's premier outdoor October celebration, showcased in the bewitching setting of Greenfield Village after hours.

From lantern-lit streets and glowing jack-o'-lantern paths to shadowy historic homes and spellbinding tales, bring your family and friends for an evening where autumn lore mingles with things that go bump in the night.

FROM SCRATCH: COOKING & CONVERSATION WITH TANYA HOLLAND & ANN DELISI

PRESENTED BY plum market

October 6, 6-9 p.m.

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation®

Spend an evening with award-winning chef, restaurateur and author Tanya Holland, in dialogue with WDET's Ann Delisi. Using food as a starting point, Holland and Delisi will explore stories of culture and community and the connections we make around the table.

The evening begins with a cocktail hour featuring complimentary hors d'oeuvres inspired by Tanya Holland's California Soul and live music, followed by an onstage conversation and live cooking demonstration.

Discounted tickets available for purchase.

CELEBRATE INDIGENOUS HISTORY

Experience special programs in Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation and Greenfield Village that reflect on and honor Indigenous history, culture, traditions and contributions. This celebration aligns with The Henry Ford's commitment to deepening its relationship with Indigenous communities.
