DaVinci The Exhibition

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation
Last chance! Open through May 3

DaVinci The Exhibition is a detailed exploration of the life and work of the ultimate Renaissance man. Step into the world of Leonardo da Vinci through more than 65 full-scale inventions and detailed art studies brought to life against the backdrop of the Italian countryside. This limited-time exhibition celebrates and studies one of history's most brilliant minds through his discoveries in art, engineering, science, flight and more.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with museum admission.

Handmade: The Crafting of America

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation
Now open through January 18, 2027

Discover the story of American craftsmanship in Handmade: The Crafting of America. From practical beginnings to bold, modern expressions, this exhibition traces the evolution of craft and celebrates human creativity. Each artifact, shown publicly for the first time reveals a narrative of resilience, resourcefulness and entrepreneurial spirit. Explore why we make, how we innovate and the people we create for.

All Aboard Adventure

Greenfield Village
May 16-17

From the first sound of the whistle, unlimited steam and diesel train rides wind through the Village on music-filled journeys designed to spark imagination. Step even closer to the action by pushing a discovery railcar, helping maneuver the historic turntable outside the Detroit, Toledo & Milwaukee Roundhouse, sitting in the cab of the 1897 D&LN #7 locomotive and watching a working crane in motion. With special behind-the-scenes access, railroading is brought vividly to life in ways rarely seen.

Climb aboard, honk the horns and explore a lineup of working emergency and construction vehicles at Detroit Central Market, discovering how these everyday machines and the heroes who operate them serve our communities.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.

Fabric of America: Our Fashions, Textiles, and Technologies

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation
Member Preview June 6
Open to the Public June 7 -September 13

Drawing exclusively from The Henry Ford's collections, Fabric of America: Our Fashions, Textiles, and Technologies explore the deep connections between textiles and our shared history. Through five enduring American values — liberty, practicality, inventiveness, abundance and individualism — this exhibition reveals how fabric shapes who we are as a people and a nation.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with museum admission.

Greenfield Village Block Party

The Dr. Sullivan and Mrs. Richie Jean Sherrod Jackson Home Public Opening

Greenfield Village
June 12

The Henry Ford's first major home acquisition in 40 years, the Jackson Home is both a family home and a national landmark. In this home, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the Jackson family and other movement leaders helped shape the Voting Rights Movement and advance the passage of the landmark 1965 Voting Rights Act. Moved carefully from Selma, Alabama, the home opens in Greenfield Village in June.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission. Reservations required.

Greenfield Village Block Party: Welcoming the Jackson Home to the Neighborhood

Greenfield Village
June 12-14

We invite you to the Greenfield Village Block Party, a joyous celebration of community, courage and culture. Enjoy special programs, Southern-inspired food, live music, a Black-owned Business Market and more as we open the Jackson Home to the public for the first time.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission. Reservations required to tour the Jackson Home.

Historic Base Ball

Motor Muster

Greenfield Village
June 20-21

Cruise through a diverse collection of vehicles and enjoy rare opportunities to step inside immersive vignettes from five of the American auto industry's most formative decades. From the lean Depression-era '30s and the American home front during World War II to the futuristic '50s, revolutionary '60s and bicentennial '70s, get a unique perspective on American culture through the lens of what we drove.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.

Historic Base Ball

June 13 through Labor Day

Step into a 19th-century summer — when the game was known as “base ball” — as one of the early official rule books comes to life in Greenfield Village. Join in as players parade down Main Street each Saturday before they take the field with the uniforms, equipment and umpiring used in 1867. Cheer on the action alongside live brass music and the whistle of a passing steam locomotive. Root for Greenfield Village's two teams, the Lah-De-Dahs and the National Base Ball Club, as they take on rival clubs from across the Midwest.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with village admission.
