MARCH

HANDMADE: THE CRAFTING OF AMERICA

Open through January 18

Trace the evolution of American craft from its functional origins to its contemporary expressions. Experience the power of handmade objects to tell stories of resilience, resourcefulness and entrepreneurship.

Collections Gallery in Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation

JUNE

FABRIC OF AMERICA: OUR FASHIONS, TEXTILES, AND TECHNOLOGIES

June 7-September 13

Drawing exclusively from The Henry Ford's collections, Fabric of America: Our Fashions, Textiles, and Technologies explores the deep connections between textiles and our shared history. Through five enduring American values — liberty, practicality, inventiveness, abundance and individualism — this exhibition reveals how fabric shapes who we are as a people and a nation.

THE JACKSON HOME

Opening in June

Moved carefully from Selma, Alabama, the Dr. Sullivan and Mrs. Richie Jean Sherrod Jackson Home is a unique time capsule documenting the inspiring story of a courageous family and community at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement.

Greenfield Village

JULY

FREEDOM PLANE NATIONAL TOUR: DOCUMENTS THAT FORGED A NATION

Presented by Meijer

July 9-26 • FREE to the public

Traveling together for the first time in history, see documents like George Washington's, Alexander Hamilton's and Aaron Burr's Oaths of Allegiance (1778); the Treaty of Paris (1783); Senate Markup of the Bill of Rights (1789); and more.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The campus of The Henry Ford stands on the ancestral homelands of the Odawa, Ojibwe and Potawatomi peoples. The Miami, Wyandot and Fox Nations also called this land their home. The 1807 Treaty of Detroit led to the forcible removal of these First Peoples. The Henry Ford acknowledges the impacts of settler colonialism and commits to deepening its relationship with Indigenous communities in the present and future.
