THE JACKSON HOME

Now Open

THF.org/JacksonHome

Moved carefully from Selma, Alabama, the Dr. Sullivan and Mrs. Richie Jean Sherrod Jackson Home is a unique time capsule documenting the inspiring story of a courageous family and community at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement.

Greenfield Village

FABRIC OF AMERICA: OUR FASHIONS, TEXTILES, AND TECHNOLOGIES

Open through September 13

Drawing exclusively from The Henry Ford's collections, Fabric of America explores the deep connections between textiles and our shared history. Through five enduring American values — liberty, practicality, inventiveness, abundance and individualism — discover how fabric shapes who we are as a people and a nation.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The campus of The Henry Ford stands on the ancestral homelands of the Odawa, Ojibwe and Potawatomi peoples. The Miami, Wyandot and Fox Nations also called this land their home. The 1807 Treaty of Detroit led to the forcible removal of these First Peoples. The Henry Ford acknowledges the impacts of settler colonialism and commits to deepening its relationship with Indigenous communities in the present and future.
