

The Henry Ford

Fall Activities 2022

Discover more than 250 acres of awe-inspiring experiences.

► NEW! National Historic Vehicle Register
Powered by the Hagerty Drivers Foundation,
Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation®

The register records the important history of America's significant automobiles. Selected vehicles are researched through written documents and spoken interviews, measured with laser scanners, and photographed from several angles. Each vehicle's story is then preserved in the Library of Congress.

Current Featured Vehicle: 1985 Modena Spyder — "The Ferris Bueller Car"

Free with corporate membership or museum admission.

► Old Car Festival
September 10-11, Greenfield Village®

Wander through the village to meet the owners who've passionately preserved these treasured machines. Watch drivers engage in games of skill, listen to the distinctive sounds of century-old vehicles or sit back and enjoy expert insights while drivers motor through the Pass-in-Review parade. This weekend is your chance to become immersed in the moving stories of the early automotive era, a true automobile lover's dream, as electric-, steam- and gas-powered engines are constantly in motion around you.

Free with corporate membership or museum admission.

Hallowe'en in Greenfield Village

▶ Hallowe'en in Greenfield Village

October 6-9, 13-16, 20-23, 27-30, 4:00-9:30 p.m.

From harvest markets and fall themes to costumed storybook characters and ghostly performances, our 42-year Hallowe'en tradition is one of a kind, showcased within the bewitching setting of after-hours Greenfield Village.

Hosted over 16 evenings in October, Hallowe'en in Greenfield Village is formatted for guests to stroll through the village at their own pace, picking and choosing their own festive or frightful experience. Back by popular demand, the Hallowe'en Express will return to its haunted tracks, taking riders along a ghoulish, surprising journey through Greenfield Village. Tickets for Hallowe'en Express will be available to purchase online for a small additional fee.

Discounted tickets with corporate membership.

▶ Heroes & Villains: The Art of the Disney Costume
Presented by the Walt Disney Archives and KeyBank
Through January 1, 2023, Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation®

This exhibition explores nearly six decades of films produced by The Walt Disney Studios, Walt Disney Television and Disney Theatrical Group, in an effort share with guests the level of craftsmanship and artistry required to produce every costume presented across stage and screen. Incorporating 79 costumes from 32 films and representing 24 different designers worn by 71 different actors, Heroes & Villains: The Art of the Disney Costume will prove to be truly unique and magical experience for guests of all ages.
