The Grim Reaper
The Grim Reaper has often — falsely — been depicted as an evil spirit that preys on mortals. In truth, he is merely a force of nature that weaves its way through time. The Greenfield Village Grim Reaper acts as our Halloween’s ambassador, reminding us all to remember those who dare to enter the Garden of the Uncondemned.

4–9:30, Ford Home Pasture, Near the Bonfire

The Covered Bridge
Originally built to simply protect the bridge deck from the elements, covered bridges have become a symbol of a certain charm and provide a protected location for travelers to pass through. They are also known to be places of enchantment and solitude to many dimensions. Our Ashley Covered Bridge is no exception, with delightful surprises in store.

The Scarecrows
Throughout history, nothing has stirred up more imagination than the scarecrow standing guard in the farmer’s field. For human form comes from fun and whimsical to dark and menacing. The scarecrows of Greenfield Village have those marks, with a few surprises thrown in for good measure.
