YOU MAKE THE HOLIDAYS FEEL EVEN MORE SPECIAL.

Citizens Bank is pleased to present Holiday Nights in Greenfield Village.

Citizens Bank

Celebrate the spirit of the season with 200 years of American holiday traditions.

Welcome to the most festive time of the year in Greenfield Village. Mingle with merrymakers amid the smells of roasting chestnuts and crackling bonfires, the sounds of carolers, fiddlers and sleigh bells. Every lantern-lit path leads you to discover a new winter wonder. Strap on a pair of ice skates. (Forgot your skates? Don't fret, we'll lend you a pair.) Send a shout-out to Santa and his magnificent reindeer decked out at the Robert Frost Home. Find your reflection in a handcrafted ornament, and nestle into a horse-drawn wagon for a sing-along through Greenfield Village. Main Street brims with holiday goods, food and warm beverages. Historical home tours open the doors to centuries of favorite family traditions. From the finest tinsel detail to the fireworks-filled sky that marks each evening's finale, we hope we make our holiday story a cherished part of your own.

SING-ALONG AND GRAND FINALE
begin at 9:40 p.m. on the Village Green.

Keep your beverage toasty warm in a HOLIDAY NIGHTS REUSABLE CUP with this inspired design of a holiday card from the collections of The Henry Ford. Available where hot beverages are sold throughout Greenfield Village.

COVER: Artwork inspired by a Christmas greeting card, 1951. From the collections of The Henry Ford.

Holiday Cooking

Holiday recipes come to life in our historic kitchens (until 9:40 p.m., as fireworks begin).

- 25 Ford Home
A savory bouquet of holiday cooking fills this Midwestern home with Christmas cheer in 1876.
- 77 Edison Homestead
Enjoy the sights and smells of a roasting Christmas goose and a sideboard laden with holiday treats as the 19-teens come to life.
- 68 Susquehanna Plantation
In 1860 Maryland, plantation society Christmas is a time for weddings, celebrations and a rare reprieve from heavy work for those enslaved.
- 82 William Holmes McGuffey Birthplace
Fire dancing in the hearth tenderly roasts wild game in our 1803 Pennsylvania log house.
- 73 Giddings Family Home
The rich aroma of chocolate wafts throughout this 1760s New England home of a prosperous trader, merchant and shipbuilder.
- 71 Daggett Farmhouse
Christmas is not observed in New England in 1760, but hearth and home still warm the soul.

Hear stories from the Civil War at this winter encampment.
- 85 A Christmas Carol (Adams Home)
Charles Dickens took America by storm in the 1860s. Come hear a performance of his beloved story, "A Christmas Carol." (6:45, 7:15, 7:45, 8:15, 8:45, 9:15 p.m.)
- 74 1830s New Year's Open House (Noah Webster Home)
Though Christmas was not widely celebrated in Connecticut at this time, there was the custom of the New Year's open house. The Websters are also hosting a silhouette party. Learn more about these charming activities.
- 96 World War II-Era Red Cross Hospitality Station (Cotswold Cottage)
In 1944 in wartime England, U.S. troops were stationed throughout the country, including the Cotswolds. Visit this Red Cross Hospitality Station, and hear about the holidays in the final full year of WWII.

- 59 Menlo Park Lights (Menlo Park)
December 1880 was a busy, historic month at Thomas Edison's Menlo Park. Months of preparations, experimenting and hard work had resulted in a fully functional electrical distribution system that could illuminate the entire surrounding countryside. Stop by and hear why this month was so important to Thomas Edison — and to all of us today.

Make Merry with the Mummies

(Along Main Street near Sir John Bennett)
Taking to the streets in outlandish costumes and performing for food, money and drink was a custom that thrived in our eastern cities in the first half of the 19th century. Join the Mummies in the fun once again!
